Arbuckle Wilderness

Davis: A drive-through, free-roaming exotic animal park covering more than 400 acres. Wild, exotic and rare animals, most roaming freely in habitats similar to their own. Other attractions (seasonal) include go-carts and a playground. Cookouts and hayrides for groups. Gift shop and food court. I-35 exit 51, Davis, OK. (800) PET-PARK (738-7275)

Bricktown Historic District

Oklahoma City: Just east of Downtown is Bricktown, Oklahoma City's renovated warehouse district. OKC's biggest hot spot for fine restaurants, clubs, theaters, galleries and shops, as well as a mile-long pedestrian walkway that cuts through the heart of Bricktown. Makes for an unforgettable visit to Oklahoma City. (405) 238-8666

The Castle of Muskogee

Muskogee: A 30,000 square foot Castle, nestled within 60 acres, and encompassing over 85 permanent structures creating the village of Castleton, is the host to the Oklahoma Renaissance Festival, Castle Fireworks sales, Halloween festival and Christmas Kingdom. 3400 W. Fern Mountain Road, Muskogee, OK. (918) 687-3625

Gilcrease Museum

Tulsa: The world's most comprehensive collections of American Indian and Western art, this nationally-celebrated museum includes extensive exhibits on America's prehistory, settlement and expansion, plus outdoor gardens. A rare copy of the Declaration of Independence is also on display. Guided tours offered. Open Tue.-Sun. 10a.m.-5p.m. (918) 655-2278

National Cowboy & Western Heritage Museum

Oklahoma City: Features the finest contemporary artists in the nation, as well as significant works by master artists. The complex contains a turn-of-the-century Western town, boasts both botanical and natural gardens and major exhibition galleries. Also on site is a unique children's building, museum store and restaurant. 1700 NE 63rd Street, Oklahoma City, OK. (405) 478-2250

Oklahoma Aquarium

Jenks: See the largest bull sharks in captivity through a one-of-a-kind, walk-through tunnel, plus hundreds of other fascinating creatures. Feed and even touch stingrays and small sharks! You'll be charmed by playful river otters, beavers and raccoons in the new Hayes Family Ozark Stream. Don't miss the Karl and Beverly White National Fishing Tackle Museum featuring a $4 million collection of antique rods, reels, lures and other memorabilia. (918) 296-FISH (3474)

Oklahoma City National Memorial & Museum

Oklahoma City: The Memorial grounds include the Field of Empty Chairs with each chair honoring one of the 168 people who were killed; the monumental bronze-clad Gates of Time; a shallow 318-foot long reflecting pool; the promontory and Survivor Tree; Rescuers Orchard and a special area for children. Open 24 hours a day, seven days a week. The interactive learning museum tells the story of the April 19, 1995 bombing of the Alfred P. Murray Federal Building. 620 N. Harvey, Oklahoma City, OK. (888) 542-HOPE (4673)

Oklahoma History Center

Oklahoma City: The museum presents a historical overview of Oklahoma, from prehistoric times to oil field wildcatters to the space program. Research library and historical archives also available for public use. Open Mon.-Sat. 10a.m.-5p.m. Closed Sun. (405) 522-5248

Overholser Mansion

Oklahoma City: Built in 1903 on the outskirts of Oklahoma City, this landmark is the most visible legacy of Henry Overholser, the man known as the "father of Oklahoma City". For years the late-Victorian mansion was Oklahoma City's showplace and social center. This three-story chateausque home is replete with original furnishings, hand painted canvas walls and lavish furnishings. (405) 525-5325

Paseo Art District

Oklahoma City: The Paseo is Oklahoma City's Art District featuring studios and galleries of over 75 artists along the tree-lined street. The painters, potters, photographers and actors intermingling with dress shops, gift shops, restaurants and a coffee shop. Built in 1929 as the first shopping district north of downtown. The Paseo is listed on the National Register of Historic Places. NW 30th & Dewey, Oklahoma City, OK. (405) 525-2688

Sam Noble Oklahoma Museum of Natural History

Norman: Located on the University of Oklahoma campus, this facility is the nation's largest university-based museum. Exhibit space covers 50,000 sq. ft. and includes five galleries and exhibits that give visitors an in-depth tour of more than 300 million years of Oklahoma's fascinating natural history. Open: Mon.-Sat. 10a.m.-5p.m., Sun. 1-5p.m. (405) 325-4712

POPS

Arcadia: A trip down historic Route 66 in Oklahoma isn't complete without a stop at the unique and colorful POPS. Located in Arcadia just east of Edmond, POPS is an iconic addition along the Mother Road. Its ultra-modern architecture of red rock and steel trusses is a draw for visitors from across the nation. A four-ton, 66-foot sculpture of a soda bottle covered in dazzling multi-colored LED lights in front of POPS can't be missed and pays tribute to the main attraction at POPS: over 500 kinds of soda. From berry soda to classic cola, POPS has it all. POPS also features a gas station, and visitors can fill up their tanks before getting back on Route 66. Visitors can also fill up on food in the old-fashioned diner at POPS. Lunch and dinner are served daily. After a visit to POPS, you're guaranteed to greet Route 66 with a smile. (405) 928-7677 or (877) 266-7677

Woolaroc Ranch Museum and Wildlife Preserve

Bartlesville: Established in 1926, Woolaroc is a 3,600 acre ranch and wildlife preserve that is open throughout the year as an educational and historical attraction. The museum houses a world-class collection of western art, artifacts and special exhibits. Also features Native American Heritage Center, gardens, trails and over 700 animals, including buffalo, elk and longhorns. Open Tue.-Sun. 10a.m.-5p.m. Closed Mon. (888) 966-8276
